Pretty much everywhere I go, I'm known as the 'funnel guy'...

That's the reason guys like Tony Robbins and Dan Kennedy trust me to educate their audience about online marketing!

But there's always been one question about funnels that I DREAD...

"Russell... what about the copy?"

Ugh, yes... the dreaded copy...

It's the #1 reason funnels fail and flop pathetically... even when everything else is done right!

And GOOD copy?

Well, there used to be ONLY two options:

Pay an arm and a leg to a professional copywriter, or invest YEARS into learning to write good copy...

I knew Funnel Hackers needed another option...

...something that could take proven formulas and make it easy to plug in your products and services to QUICKLY and EASILY create high-converting, money-making copy.

- Headlines
- VSL Scripts
- Optin / Webinar Registration Pages
- Webinars
- Email Campaigns
- Ads

So that's why Jim Edwards and I created Funnel Scripts...

It can do ALL that (and a whole lot more)!

So if you're ready for the secret THIRD option to getting GREAT copy (without becoming a copy pro or spending thousands of dollars on a copywriter), get Funnel Scripts NOW before we add even more scripts and increase the price.

(Don't forget, we started at $297 yearly, and then bumped it up to $497 yearly!)

Right now you can now pay $797 ONE time for Funnel Scripts (meaning no recurring payments) and get access to all current and FUTURE scripts!

I should also warn you... I'm a little scared...

Because I have a TON of friends who are copywriters, and they make a LOT of money!

Of course, smart business owners know that it's worth it, but it's still painful to sign a $20,000 check...

I'm scared they might get mad at me for giving the "little guys" a tool to create high-converting copy without paying outrageous fees.

I might have to build a moat around my house, and put some crocodiles in it to keep me safe...

(Just kidding... sort of...)
